Welcome to the Ribs on the River Backyard Cook-Off 2019. This is a KCBS Sanctioned Backyard Contest this year. In this contest, Amateurs will be cooking Chicken AND Ribs. Cook timing is key to winning this contest. For this contest, your chicken and ribs will be judged on Appearance, Taste and Tenderness. Each of these 2 categories will be judged from 1-9 with 9 being the best. KCBS Rules will apply, please familiarize yourself with them. We will make every attempt to utilize KCBS Certified Judges for this contest but cannot guarantee it.

The following guidelines will apply:

Summarized KCBS Rules (make sure to read the complete rules on our website):

All teams must be able to carry their own equipment to the site. NO EQUIPMENT OVER 300 POUNDS (OVERSIZED) ALLOWED!!
- CHECK-IN: Check in time will begin at 8:00 AM (not before). The earlier you check in, the more time you will have for preparation and cooking.
- CHICKEN: Your chicken MUST be inspected prior to seasoning and cooking to ensure they are in their packaged raw natural state (no pre-marinating is allowed).
RIBS: Your ribs MUST be inspected prior to seasoning and cooking to ensure they are in their packaged raw natural state (no pre-marinating is allowed). Ribs must be Spare, Loin, Baby-Back or St Louis cut. No Country style allowed.

Number tag assigned and affixed by representative should not be altered in any way. The assigned number SHALL BE ON THE TOP of the container.
- PORTIONS: There shall be a minimum of 6 portions presented in the container. Ribs may be turned in with double bones, single bones, heavy meat on both sides of a single bone and if desired a touch of loin meat attached to the rib bone. Be sure each portion is cut through so that Judge does not have to pull portions apart. Remember: There are 6 judges per table.

- GRAND CHAMPION: The Grand Champion will be determined by a combination of your scores in accordance with KCBS Rules
